

Mashar

Coaching, Training & Consultancy

Leader as a COACH Professional Coach Program

Examine a wide variety of concepts to support being the best coach or leader you can be. This course explores life and career business matters relating to cultivating and maintaining personal and professional relationships. It focuses on:

Introduction

To coaching profession and its affect on work environment

Entrance

To group of certified coaching development courses.

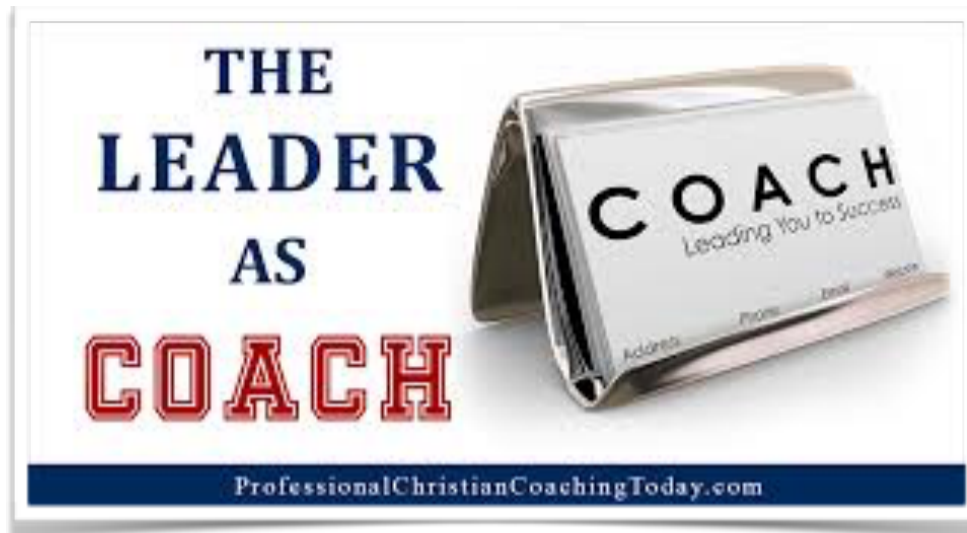

Personal

Development in coaching, leadership and professional skills.

Who Should Attend

Leaders, Team Leaders, Seniors Managers, Consultants, HR Professionals

You will

Have access to expert tutor input from an experienced Coach.

Enjoy improved communication with friends, family, colleagues as well as coachees

Receive peer feedback as you test your “coaching” in small practice triads: coach – coachee – observer.

Learn the basic coaching competencies and practice them with participants and the facilitator.

have a conversation that leads to greater resourcefulness, accountability and outcome

Ask value questions to draw the best answers. This skill is important to analyze the difficult situations.

Discover alternatives to giving advice to colleges and subordinates.

Learn how to use an effective five-stage model that will enable you to begin coaching right away

Accreditation

- Upon completion of this program, participant shall receive a Certificate of Attendance with Approved Coach Specific Training Hours (ACSTH) by International Coach Federation (ICF).

Investment

Only KD500 / Participant

include online training & Communication Survey

Facilitator

Raja Allaho

Executive & Mentor Coach PCC

Duration: 3 days